

Neuter Surgery in Cats

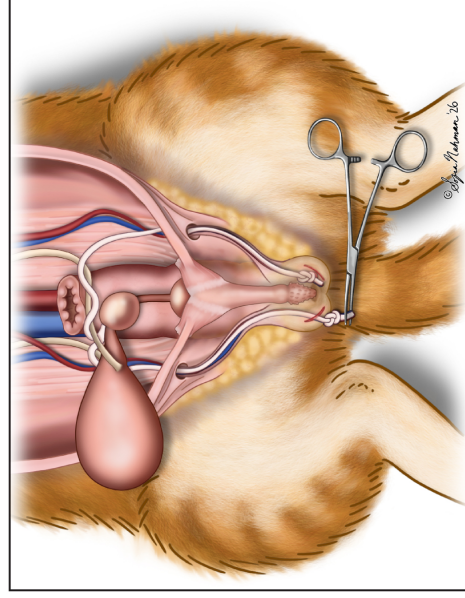

1. A small incision is placed on each side of the scrotum.

2. The testicle is gently pulled through the incision.

3. The spermatic cord is ligated and the testicle is removed.

4. The process is repeated on the opposite side and the incision is left open to naturally heal.